

Red Wind Consulting, Inc.
Tribal Elder Abuse Training and Technical Assistance Coordinator

Estimated 24 hours per week, with ability to increase to 32 in year 2.

Red Wind Consulting, Inc. works to strengthen Tribal programs and Native organizations' ability to develop and enhance local responses to domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, elder abuse, and sex trafficking. Red Wind's work is achieved through national tribal training and technical assistance and through the provision of direct services to victims of domestic violence and sexual assault. Red Wind is located in Colorado Springs, Colorado. www.red-wind.net.

The Tribal Elder Abuse Technical Assistance Coordinator is responsible for coordinating training and technical assistance activities for the Elder Abuse Multi-Disciplinary Team Technical Assistance Project for Office for Victims of Crime (OVC) tribal grantee programs. This includes working with Red Wind Executive Director, Red Wind TA Coordinators and staff, project partners, and consultants to ensure Red Wind provides quality, effective training and technical assistance. Work is focused on assisting tribal programs to develop and enhance their multi-disciplinary response to Elder Abuse with their tribal while assisting them with strategies to be successful in their work; this will include their victim services, law enforcement response and adult protection as well as other partners relevant to the tribal response.

The appropriate candidate will have experience addressing Elder Abuse or an ability to develop their understanding of Elder Abuse and the relevant responding agencies that serve to help enhance the safety of Elders from Abuse within tribal communities.

Duties and Responsibilities

The following position responsibilities are essential functions of the position. Successful job applicants will be able to perform these essential functions with minimal supervision:

- Work closely with the Executive Director to develop and maintain a long-range plan for training, technical assistance delivery to the OVC tribal programs;
- Maintain regular communication with project lead partner, OVC tribal programs, project partners and Red Wind staff assisting tribal programs in the development and delivery of their multi-disciplinary response;
- Serve as a presenter/trainer for OVC approved training and webinars;
- Create new materials for tribal programs such as brochures, fact sheets; tool kits, and manuals;
- Must meet the needs for training and technical assistance emerging in the field; and
- Other duties as assigned by the Executive Director.

Qualifications and desired experience

- Will have an understanding of why violence against Indigenous women exists and how housing impacts safety for survivors;

Position posted 1/1/2020

- Must have experience working in or with programs who hold as their primary focus working to address housing needs of survivors of domestic violence, sexual assault, and/or stalking;
- Must have an understanding of the dynamics of domestic violence, sexual violence, and stalking;
- Must have an understanding and experience with the systems that Red Wind programs are involved with. i.e. Tribal Governments, tribal jurisdictions and criminal justice systems; Department of Justice, Office on Violence Against Women; social service and domestic violence/sexual assault advocacy programs; and other social justice organizations;
- Must understand the intersection of oppressions and its impact historically on tribes and Native American communities;
- Must be experienced and comfortable making presentations to small to large groups of people.
- Must possess strong writing and verbal skills;
- Must be proficient in the Microsoft Office 365 office suite including Word and PowerPoint;
- Will be motivated, self-directed, organized with attention to detail, and have good problem-solving skills; and
- Must have valid driver's license and be able to travel nationally.

$22 – $25 per hour commensurate with experience.

Red Wind offers competitive wages, benefits, and vacation package. Red Wind staff is dedicated to promoting an environment of collaboration and workplace flexibility.

Submit your (1) cover letter, (2) resume or curriculum vitae, and (3) a writing sample (maximum length one page) that you believe best expresses your commitment and passion for this position to: admin@red-wind.net. PLEASE DO NOT CONTACT US WITH QUESTIONS, you will receive a response when we have completed our process to inform you of your status.

Position is opened until filled.